

2014 Washington DC Youth Tour Winners

Morgan Smith

Alchesay HS

Morgan enjoys reading and writing, cross-country, softball and basketball, playing the drums and working with children. Her favorite subjects in school are English and Science. Morgan is a member of the National Honor Society, was the 2011-2012 White Mountain Apache Tribe Youth Council Vice President and was elected Miss Alchesay High School for the 2013 – 2014 school year. Morgan's goal is to become a teacher, then a principal and hopefully, one day, to work her way up to a superintendent.

Rachel Cushman

Reserve HS

Rachel enjoys hunting, hiking, cake decorating and skiing. She is very athletic being involved in volleyball, cheer, track, and basketball and received The Most Improved in Volleyball award. Rachel's favorite subjects in school are World History, Advanced Biology and English. She is a member of the National Honor Society, the A/B Honor Roll and participates in the Future Farmers of America (FFA). Rachel also found time to volunteer two summers at a Christian Camp and helped at Montosa Family bible Camp. Future plans for Rachel include becoming either an Education Law Attorney or an Archaeologist.

Michael Pearce

Show Low HS

Michael enjoys model airplanes, survival and outdoor activities and has played soccer for three years. His favorite subjects in school are Computer Technical Education (CTE), History and Choir. Michael's civic involvement activities include Boy Scouts of America and he is a member of his church choir. He has been a member of the school choir for three years and participated in the Feast of Carols for nine years and in six other musicals. Michael has received awards as an Eagle Scout (2012), Student of the Month (11/2011 and 10/2012) and for the Regional Choir (2012 and 2013). Michael's goals include joining the U.S. Marines, Law Enforcement and Film Production.
